

Supporting the Learner in Digital Landscapes

Alan Tait

Professor Emeritus of Distance Education and Development

The Open University UK

January 2019

alan.tait@open.ac.uk

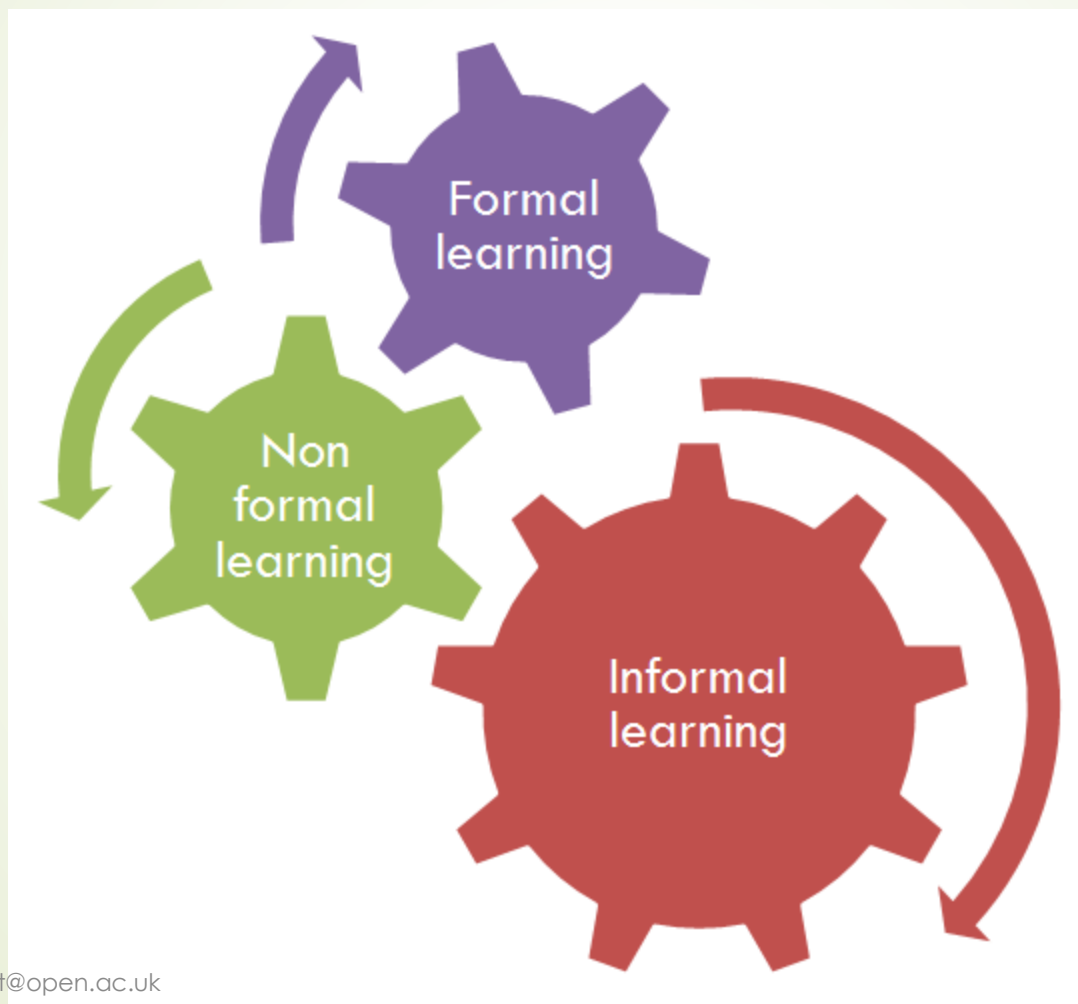

Summary

- Digital landscapes
- Informal learning
- Credentials and qualifications
- Knowledge, skills and competence
- Scale
- Lifelong

Digital Landscapes

Informal learning

Credentials and qualifications

alan.tait@open.ac.uk

Please don't print me – view on screen only

ilm
Leadership without limits

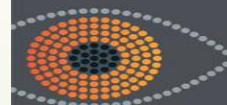

What are digital credentials?

The next generation in showcasing your skills and qualifications online

How can I get a credential?

Create an ILM account to access and share your achievements. Full guidelines on how to claim a digital credential are outlined in our Digital Credentials Guide, which you can find here.

Once you're set up, you can view all your accredited skills in one go.

Scale and personalisation

Lifelong learning: personal, social, for livelihood and economy

Summary

- Digital landscapes
- Informal learning
- Credentials and qualifications
- Knowledge, skills and competence
- Scale
- Lifelong
- Learners now live in a different world from educational institutions
- Modernise or decline!
- Education remains education: a humanistic project

Спасибо!

Alan Tait

alan.tait@open.ac.uk